

PRIVACY POLICY

Penrith Bowling and Recreation Club is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The Act contains 10 Australian Privacy Principles that set standards for the handling of personal information. The Club has a commitment to privacy and the safeguarding of member, visitor and staff personal information.

Any personal information provided by you to the Club (e.g. name, address, date of birth and contact details), will be protected.

The Club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The Club may also disclose personal information to relevant authorities if it reasonably believes that there is a threat to an individual's life, health or safety, or public health or safety. If the Club has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being, or may be engaged in, personal information may be used or disclosed as a necessary part of any investigation and reporting to relevant persons or authorities.

The Club may disclose your information where relevant to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party keep your personal information confidential and secure.

Your personal information, may be used by the Club for marketing purposes to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services, any new related services, and promotions.

If you do not wish to receive information about services and promotions, the Club, on request, will remove your name from mailing lists.

You have a right to access any personal information that the Club may hold about you, including a right of correction of your information. The Club will generally not charge a fee for you to access your personal information, but may require your request in writing.

If you require any further information, please contact the Club Manager.
